

HOUSING RESOURCES

CALIFORNIA HOME FOR THE ADULT DEAF (CHAD)

529 Las Tunas Drive

Arcadia, CA 91007

(626) 445-2259 (Voice)

(626) 445-0875 (TTY)

Website: www.chadhome.org

The California Home for the Adult Deaf (CHAD), a facility owned by the California Association of the Deaf, is a licensed 24-bed residential facility exclusively for individuals who are deaf and hard of hearing. Residents come from all over the United States to take advantage of Southern California's weather and abundance of recreational opportunities for seniors who are deaf.

FREMONT OAK GARDENS (FOG)

2681 Driscoll Road

Fremont, CA 94539

(510) 490-4076 (TTY)

Satellite Senior Homes, Inc. (SH) and the Bay Area Coalition of Deaf Senior Citizens (BACDSC) as co-sponsors have developed Fremont Oak Gardens, the first affordable housing facility for seniors who are deaf in Northern California. The design, amenities and supportive service plan of this 51-unit building are designed to meet the special needs of senior citizens who are deaf in the City of Fremont as well as the greater Bay Area and Northern California.